

Canada's strong 3rd quarter is the thumbs up for New Canadian Franchise Company.

Leading home staging company is the answer for those entering the Industry

Ottawa, ON – October 22, 2009 - A recent CNN list ranked Home Stager as the #1 career choice on their “Seven emerging jobs poised for growth” list. Canadians are not far behind in recognizing the value in Home Staging. The downturn in the Real Estate Industry has changed how properties are marketed to sell faster and for more money, gaining higher ROI for sellers. Connie Nedergaard, successful business owner in Ottawa Ontario www.stagednsold.com, operating for 8+ years and is one of the largest independent staging businesses with 5 locations across Canada. Staged N Sold Properties Inc. recently announced expansion plans by franchising the company for those looking for success in this industry.

Staged N Sold's business integrity and credibility ensure that homeowners can rest assured that they will benefit from working with professionals that have received the highest standards of training and service provision in the industry. This has been a direct result of the determination of Nedergaard, a Certified Professional Property Stager, Instructor and National Director of Operations for Elite CSPI and former Realtor, The goal to set industry leading standards to protect stagers, real estate professionals and homeowners alike. Nedergaard said, “Strong training is an essential foundation for my business.”

Staged N Sold Properties Inc.'s proven exclusive 3 Level Service plan; on going learning programs in the company and the training standards & co-operation of CSPI Academy we will have the ability to provide all agents nationally with certified, well trained real estate staging professionals.

Staged N Sold Properties Inc. will be the only nationally franchised brand in the Canadian Home Staging Industry. Their tag line of “Sell it Faster, Sell it Smarter” has helped real estate agents and homeowners sell more than 150 million dollars of real estate. Their full business model has proven to be successful regardless of economic conditions and with 5 locations nationwide they continue to be industry leaders staging vacant properties, resale and property management projects.

Connie Nedergaard, President
Staged N Sold Properties Inc.
613-839-3628
info@stagednsold.com
www.stagednsold.com